

Homework Help

Disclaimer: The appearance of hyperlinks does not constitute endorsement by the U.S. Air Force of this Web site or the information, products, or services contained therein. For other than authorized activities such as military exchanges and morale, welfare and recreation sites, the U.S. Air Force does not exercise any editorial control over the information you may find at these locations. Such links are provided consistent with the stated purpose of this DoD Web site.

- A Plus Research & Writing Paper for High School & College Students
<http://www.ipl.org/teen/aplus/>

Follow the step by step directions and you too can get an A+ on your next paper.

- Awesome Library
<http://www.awesomelibrary.org/>

Organizes the web with 22,000 carefully reviewed resources, including the top 5 percent in education.

- Biographical Dictionary
<http://www.s9.com/>

Can find information on 28,000 famous people. (younger teen)

- Biography Maker
<http://www.bham.wednet.edu/bio/biomaker.htm>

Learn how to write a really exciting biography. (younger teen)

- BJ Pinchbeck's Homework Helper
http://school.discoveryeducation.com/homeworkhelp/homework\_help\_home.html

Links to every subject or class you can take.

- Cell Alive
<http://www.cellsalive.com/>

Learn cell development with animations, descriptions and video.

- Electric Library's Encyclopedia
<http://www.encyclopedia.com/>

Use this online encyclopedia for your research papers or just for fun.

- Encyclopedia.com
<http://www.encyclopedia.com/>

The Internet's premiere free encyclopedia, provides users with more than 57,000 frequently updated articles from the Columbia Encyclopedia, Sixth Edition. Each article is enhanced with links to newspaper and magazine articles as well as pictures and maps - all provided by eLibrary.

- Guide to Grammar and Writing
<http://grammar.ccc.commnet.edu/grammar/>

Find all your grammar and writing questions answered here. Very thorough site with excellent resources.

- Homework Central: Biographies
<http://www.multcolib.org/homework/biohc.html>

Lists of biographies about people in every walk of life.

- Homework Spot
<http://www.homeworkspot.com/>

A homework information portal that should supply all your homework needs. It's even separated into elementary, middle and high school sections.

- How to Study.com
<http://www.how-to-study.com/>

All the skills, tips and guidelines you need to work smarter not harder.

- Info Please - Homework Center
<http://www.infoplease.com/homework/>

Use the search box to find answers to your homework questions in their almanac, dictionary, encyclopedia, and biography database or go to these sections directly. For maps, go to the atlas or map library.

- International Affairs.com
<http://www.internationalaffairs.com/home.html>

Provides links to maps, newspapers, magazines, governments, international organizations, economic data, demographic information, topic areas, research institutions, online journals, and general information on countries all over the world.

- KidsClick
<http://www.kidsclick.org/>

Find links to every subject. All links have a grade level assigned to it so you can find links that are appropriate for your grade.

- Merriam-Webster's Word Central
<http://www.wordcentral.com/>

Use the dictionary and thesaurus online then try out the cool new stuff, word game, lighter side of language, word of the day, or word for the wise.

- Reference Desk
<http://www.refdesk.com/toc.html>

A virtual reference desk with information on anything you might need.

- Science Fair Primer
<http://users.rcn.com/tedrowan/primer.html>

High school participants at the local science fair compete for scholarships in some states as well as the opportunity to go to the regional and state science fairs.

- Spark Notes
<http://www.sparknotes.com/>

Online Study Guides. Provides over 100 study guides for the classics.

- States and Capitals
<http://www.50states.com/>

Gives you important and not so important facts about each state.

- The Academy of Achievement
<http://www.achievement.org/>

Investigate those who have made history in the arts, business, public service, science and exploration, and sports as well as those who demonstrated courage, perseverance, or integrity. Video and audio of these history makers such as General Colin Powell, Edward Tiller (father of the atomic bomb), Dr. Ballard (discovered the Titanic), Denton A. Cooley (pioneer of the heart transplant), Alan Shepard (1st man in space), Chuck Yeager (broke the sound barrier), Hershel Walker, Willie Mays, George Lucas, and many, many more. (ages 9-11)

- The National Atlas
<http://www.nationalatlas.gov/>

Designed to provide a reliable summary of national scale geographical information.

- The Research Paper
<http://www.trinity.edu/~mkearl/research.html>

Provides a guide to writing a research paper.

- The WWW Virtual Library
<http://vlib.org/>

All subject areas and classes are covered at this site.

- Time Capsule
<http://www.dmarie.com/timecap/>

Put in a date and you'll discover what happened on that date; what were the top songs, prices on merchandise; sports events; or academy award winners. (younger teen)