NOTE: We're trying something new in hopes of generating some interest and activity on your installation's Facebook page and the MyAirForceLife page as well. AFSVA is giving away an iTunes or Google Play gift card (winner's preference) to one winner at each installation. To be eligible to win, participants must attend the comedy show hosted at your installation and follow these directions:

1. Attend the Comics on Duty event tonight, March 20, at Fall Hall Community Center
2. Take a photo at the event
3. Share the photo in the comments section and tell us what you thought about the show
4. Then visit the MyAirForceLife Facebook page, like the page, share the same photo, comment on their experience and use hashtag #wintercomedytour

The contest ends approximately one week after the show. AFSVA will choose one winner at random, make contact with the winner and make arrangements to send the gift card to the winner directly. We will share the winner's name for you to announce on your installation's Facebook page. The winner will also be announced on the MyAirForceLife page.
